

Regulatory Update Florida's CFO Jeff Atwater

The Florida Department of Financial Services touches virtually every aspect the financial services profession. Jeff Atwater, Florida's Chief Financial Officer, will present a briefing on recent and pending regulatory developments, the possible implications, and the new challenges and best practices that should be on your radar screen.

Florida's CFO oversees the state's accounting and auditing functions, monitors the investment of state funds. Insurance consumer service is handled by the CFO, and the office is responsible for the licensing and oversight of insurance agents and agencies. Insurance fraud investigation also is overseen by the CFO.

Monday, July 28th
The University of Tampa
Vaughn Center

4 - 5 pm

Registration opens at 3:30 pm

This event is FREE

Engage in Direct Dialogue

This session affords you an opportunity to hear about current regulatory issues while engaging in a direct dialogue with Florida Chief Financial Officer.

Stay for the Reception

Mingle and meet like-minded professionals while enjoying a cool libation. The first round is on us, after that it's a cash bar.

Sponsored by

Register today by visiting PlanningTampaBay.org or by sending an email to RSVP@PlanningTampaBay.org